SHU GoGlobal

6–12 March

A week-long celebration of the talent and diversity of our students and staff

shu.ac.uk/SHUfest

SHU Fest is a week-long festival with events every day, including live music, dance, film screenings, crafts and much more.

Performances

During the week, there'll be live performances by Sheffield Hallam students, staff and special guests at both campuses.

More acts may be confirmed nearer the time – check the SHU GoGlobal Facebook page for updates.

Workshops

Experience a range of crafts in our interactive workshops. Learn a new skill and make something to take home.

Trip to another city

We are organising a trip to Chester, Oxford or Newcastle as chosen by a public vote. See page 11 for details.

International
Women's Day

International Women's Day

Wednesday 8 March marks International Women's Day (IWD). Observed since 1909 it is a global celebration of respect, appreciation and recognition of women, while continuing to call for greater equality.

Sheffield Hallam University celebrates International Women's Day with a programme of events for students and staff. Look out for the profiles of inspirational women profiled on the university's screens. For more information go to shu.ac.uk/campaigns/internationalwomensday

Events calendar

Monday 6 March, 12–12.30pm

Three Profs and a Percussionist Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Professors (Profs) Cranton, Eccleston and Sammon are world experts in their fields as well as being musicians. Expect to hear rock, pop and folk delivered with a sprinkling of good humour making full use of the guitar, mandolin, bass and ukelele. You'll recognise the songs – just not played like this.

Monday 6 March, 12.30–12.50pm

Singing performance by Jordan Rooker Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus

After almost six years of fronting rock band 'Monoking' and playing shows all over the UK, singer-songwriter and student Jordan brings an exciting acoustic performance to Heart of the Campus. This one is not to be missed.

Cocklebread Band Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Cocklebread are a collection of Sheffield Hallam staff members and students. Their 30 minute set will take you on a lighthearted romp through world folk, blues, gospel and bluegrass. Guaranteed to get you singing along!

SHSU Band – a Sheffield Hallam Students' Union society Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

SHSU Band is a talented group of friendly and enthusiastic musicians who play instantly recognisable classics from film soundtracks, musical theatre and classical music – a fantastic event for any music fan.

Singing and ukulele performance by Katie Read Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Katie is a first year Illustration student and member of the AIM performance society. She has played ukulele for 2 years and has been performing her quirky brand of music since she started at University. Expect covers of indie and folk songs as well as originals!

Craft workshop – Decopatch Owen 221

Staff member Samantha Logan from the International Experience Team will help you breathe new life into 3D objects using a simple papier mâché technique called Decopatch. Decorate your favourite animal figures, box or coaster which you can take away afterwards for a perfect Mother's Day gift. This workshop is therapeutic and fun! Places are limited, so please book your place at tinyurl.com/decopatch17

Chinese cultural celebration Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Organised by a group of our students, this celebration will include a display of traditional crafts from China, such as paper folding and dumpling making. Experience a new culture while trying out some new activities!

Monday 6 March, 6.30–9pm

In Cold Blood – free film screening by Rare Giants The Void, level 1, Owen building

Join us for a special anniversary film screening organised by local cinema and arts organisation, Rare Giants.

Truman Capote's 1967 best seller, a breakthrough narrative account of real-life crime and punishment, became an equally chilling film in the hands of writer-director Richard Brooks. Brooks brings a detached, documentary-like starkness to this uncompromising view of an American tragedy and its aftermath.

Tuesday 7 March, 12.30–12.55pm

Imba Basi Band Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Staff member Jane Muller and friend will perform a stripped back set of original songs. Mixing the percussive sounds of Africa with the best of beautiful Western acoustic, they'll bring you original music rich in harmonies and rhythm. Their music, some commissioned by the National Coal Mining Museum and Yorkshire Wildlife Park, will transport you from England to Africa with story songs, and lyrical poetry.

Ballroom dancing with Fides and Ramen Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Fides Matzdorf, who works in the Sheffield Business School, and Ramen Sen will glide across the Heartspace with ballroom and Latin dances. After meeting through the Sheffield Dancesport Society, they have represented England at the World Championships and are the current UK Senior Ten-Dance champions. Their teachers have included Darren Bennett, Lilia Kopylova and Joanne Clifton of Strictly Come Dancing fame.

Tuesday 7 March, 1–2pm

Bite-sized Chinese with Xingyue Zhao Owen 1033

Want to learn some useful phrases in Chinese? This fun session organised by student Xingyue will include information about festivals and Chinese names – great for anyone wanting to start a new language or study abroad! Places are limited, so please book your place at tinyurl.com/chinese17

Tuesday 7 March, 1.30–3pm

Knit Like Your Nanna Owen 221

Whether you're a novice or an experienced knitter, come along to knit in a relaxed environment and receive guidance on techniques from this award-winning knitting society. You can bring your own materials but knitting needles and yarn will be supplied for anyone to try out! Places are limited, so please book your place at tinyurl.com/knitlikeournanna17

Tuesday 7 March, 2.15–3.30pm

Tuesday 7 March, 1.30–1.40pm

Bollywood dancing performance Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

A group of our students will showcase the best of Bollywood dance inspired by Bollywood actors from Amitabh Bachchan to Shahrukh Khan. To demonstrate the change Bollywood dance has gone through, they will perform traditional Indian dance forms through to hardcore hip hop. Enjoy the show and give it a go!

Tuesday 7 March, 1.40–1.50pm

Singing performance by Pallavi Waykul Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Pallavi is a Physiotherapy student who has been singing from a young age. She has performed regularly in her home country and will be bringing a mixture of classical Hindi and well known Bollywood songs to SHU Fest.

Tuesday 7 March, 1.50–2pm

Bollywood Fusion dancing by Manali Sarpatwar Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

A classic fusion of Indian Bollywood and Jazz. Manali has trained under the likes of Shiamak Davar and Shambhavi Dandekar and will perform a classic showcase of her passion for dance.

Tuesday 7 March, 2–2.15pm

Bollywood dancing performance Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Our Bollywood dancers return for a second lively performance to classic songs.

Tuesday 7 March, 6.30–8.30pm

Give it a Go salsa The Hubs

SHSU Salsa Society will be holding a free Give it a Go session to teach you the basics of salsa and encourage you to get your hips moving!

Wednesday 8 March, 11–11.30am

Belly dance performance by Jaleh Fallah

Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Belly dance is a type of Middle Eastern dance, which many experts say is the oldest form of dance, having roots in all ancient cultures from the Orient to the Middle East. Join Jaleh and the Dance Revolution Ladies Performance Team for a demonstration and the chance to try it out!

Wednesday 8 March, 11.30am–12pm

Flamenco performance by Barbara Thornes

Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Flamenco is one of the most characteristic elements of Spanish culture. It is a Spanish art form and is known across the world as a very emotional style of dance. Don't miss Barbara and her students performing in the Heartspace.

Wednesday 8 March, 12–12.15pm

Acoustic guitar performance by Joe Ashton and Alex Lee

Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Joe and Alex are both first year students, drawing inspiration from their favourite artists, including the Beatles and the Kinks. Their style of music is a mix of rock, folk, country and rock n' roll and is guaranteed to get you dancing.

Wednesday 8 March, 12.15–12.30pm

Singing performance
by Ellie Wright

Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Ellie is a singer and acoustic guitarist originally from Lincoln. She sings indie and acoustic alternative rock covers and occasionally writes some of her own songs. She is part of the AIM society and studies English Language, so expect some of the best lyrics of the week!

Wednesday 8 March, 12.30–12.45pm

Acoustic ukelele performance by Jordan Wrigley

Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Jordan started singing at local open mic nights and pubs, and has since performed at small festivals and gigs, which has grown his reputation in the music scene. He'll perform a variety of folk songs, originals and covers, inspired by the likes of Mumford and Sons, Paolo Nutini, Newton Faulkner and Crosby Stills and Nash.

Wednesday 8 March,
12.45–1pm

Acoustic guitar performance by Remi Quiogue
Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Remi is an Engineering and Mathematics student whose influences range from Michael Jackson to Ed Sheeran. He taught himself how to play guitar and has played many small gigs and competitions, establishing himself on the singer-songwriter music scene in Sheffield.

Wednesday 8 March,
1–1.15pm

Poetry reading by Al McClimens
Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Al McClimens has performed previously at Off the Shelf, the South Yorkshire Poetry Festival and St Anza. He performs at open mics and poetry slams to remind people that poetry has its roots in tradition. His spoken work ranges from the ridiculous to the sublime, but don't take our word for it – come along and judge for yourself.

Wednesday 8 March,
1–1.20pm

Music performance by Moral Vacuums
Heart of the Campus, Collegiate Campus

Moral Vacuums are Doctors Will Reader and Paul Aleixo. Unlike the Blues Brothers who wanted to get the band together "one last time", these staff members are using SHU Fest to get the band together "for the first time". Steeped in folk, classic rock, prog, blues and Americana, Moral Vacuums take an eclectic approach which places feeling and melody above all else.

Wednesday 8 March, 1.15–1.30pm

Singing performance by Alice Gilhespy-Swan
Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Alice's real passion has always been music and she is working towards her diploma in singing while honing her trade by performing in and around Sheffield. She will be joined by Mitchell Legge playing the guitar. Her influences range from Ed Sheeran to Sia – don't miss out on her voice gracing the Heartspace stage!

Wednesday 8 March,
1.30–1.45pm

Singing performance by Jordan Rooker
Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

After almost 6 years of fronting rock band 'Monoking' and playing shows all over the UK, singer-songwriter and student Jordan brings an exciting acoustic performance to Heartspace. This one is not to be missed.

Wednesday 8 March,
1.45–3pm

Indonesian cultural celebration
Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Our Indonesian students will put on a spectacular showcase of their culture, including a performance from a band playing the Anklung – a traditional instrument from Indonesia. This is a great opportunity to experience something new and find out about another culture!

Wednesday 8 March,
3–3.30pm

Dance performance by Billions Rising Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

This is a flash mob led by Nisha Lall as a dance for solidarity to end exploitation of women across the world. You can get involved and learn the 'Break the Chain' dance routine at onebillionrising.org

Wednesday 8 March, 5–8pm

Big SHU Quiz Hallam View, level 6, Owen building

It's time for the infamous SHU Fest quiz, testing the brain power of both staff and students! Enter a team of up to four people for your chance to win a prize. Entry is £5 per person which includes bar snacks and all money raised will be donated to the Facilities Directorate's nominated charity. Places are limited so book your place at SHUfest@shu.ac.uk – along with the names of your team members.

Thursday 9 March,

Acoustic performance by Zuza Paveley Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Final year Product Design student Zuza draws her inspiration from art, design, nature and the atmosphere of various places and points in time. Music started as a hobby that has turned into a real passion which is growing with the AIM Society.

Thursday 9 March, 12.15–12.30pm

Guitar performance by James Oldroyd Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Maths and Engineering student James has been playing guitar for as long as he can remember. He started performing about four months ago with help from the AIM society, and has been steadily building an entertaining catalogue of songs, which you can experience during his slot on the main stage.

Thursday 9 March, 1–1.20pm

Singing performance by Shannon Hoddin Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Shannon is a student and singer who wants to bring a little joy to people by sharing her talent and tapping into the emotion of the songs that she performs. She'll sing a variety of songs by artists such as Jennifer Hudson and James Arthur, with her own spin.

Thursday 9 March, 12.30–12.50pm

Singing performance
by Marianne Flores
Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Final year student Marianne is an acoustic performer who began singing at a very young age, channeling influences such as Tori Kelly, Nora Jones and Eva Cassidy into every one of her soulful and melodic performances.

Thursday 9 March,
12.30–2pm

Sugarcraft workshop with
Nicky Fuller
Owen 221

Staff member Nicky will show you how to create a teddy bear using sugar paste, teaching you simple modelling techniques which will inspire you to take up the art of sugarcraft and cake making. Places are limited, so please book your place at tinyurl.com/sugarcraft17

Thursday 9 March, 1.20–1.35pm

Russian dancing by Maria Rumiantseva
Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Maria's performance includes a small medley of traditional folk Russian dances, which are known worldwide for their energy and infectious upbeat rhythm. The dancing techniques involve squatting and round dance, while the music such as Pereplyas, Kalinka-Malinka and Peddlers are well-known even outside of Russia.

Thursday 9 March, 1.35–2.30pm

Middle East cultural celebration
Heartspace, level 2, Owen building

Join us for this lively display of culture from the Middle East, including a live band from the region performing traditional songs. This is a great opportunity to sample how another culture celebrates – it'll be impossible not to want to join in.

Thursday 9 March, 5–6.30pm

Tour of Sheffield's Victorian music halls Meet at the main University entrance, Owen building

Join staff member Chris Reece as he takes you on an historical musical journey in Sheffield, visiting the West Bar area. You will visit long gone pubs and music halls and hear tales about the legendary manager Tommy Youdan and the stars that have performed in Sheffield. Please book your place at tinyurl.com/musichalls17

Friday 10 March, 12–2pm

Baking demonstration with Paul Benson Kitchen, level 12, Owen building

This year the baking demonstration is going to be all about bread. From five simple ingredients, plus a little bit of elbow grease, it is pretty straightforward to produce a loaf of bread that tastes great and smells divine. Based on Paul Hollywood's superb recipe, staff member Paul will demonstrate how to make a bloomer loaf. Places are limited, so please book your place at tinyurl.com/shubaking17

Friday 10 March, 12–12.15pm
Finger guitarist – Geoff Olnier
Heartspace, level 2,
