This second workshop will provide practical steps to help protect you from cyber crime and help ensure your and your employees comply with current data protection legislation (GDPR).

During this session we will

- Know your rights as an individual with regards to data protection legislation (including GDPR)
- Provide good practice advice to ensure compliance with data protection legislation
- Provide you with sample policies and practical implementation steps
- Help you stay safe online, steps to take to help protect yourself from cyber crime
- Provide advice on how to protect your devices and software

Please let us know if you are attending by emailing tess.daly@disabilitysheffield.org.uk.

Please also advise if you require any particular help on the day.

The materials produced from this workshop will help inform a creature comforts style animation, being produced by Flycheese productions <http://www.flycheese.com> .
