

Recruiting Student Advisors £150 payment available

Workplace PAs Training

Disability Sheffield are developing some training for students who might need to employ a Workplace Personal Assistant (PA) when they graduate. This will be based on some resources produced by The University of York and Sheffield Hallam University following some research around Employing Workplace PAs.

Who we are looking for

3 advisors to help us develop the training who are:

- Current or recent graduates of Sheffield Hallam University or University of Sheffield
- Have a physical or sensory impairment
- Have experience of working with student support or a personal assistant, either in a home, work or study capacity.

To view the resources and for more information <https://workplacepersonalassistant.org/>

What we expect

We will expect you to:

- Attend 2 meetings in Sheffield during February and March 2019
- Read documents in advance of the meeting and provide comments
- Attend the training which will take place end of March 2019

If you are interested

Email emily.morton@disabilitysheffield.org.uk by Wednesday 13th February 2019 to express your interest in the role along with a contact telephone number

For an informal discussion about the role please phone at Emily Morton at Disability Sheffield on 0114 2536747